BioLargo has utilized Uptick's services for over a year... distributing press releases through Uptick's services and email marketing campaigns to get our word out to their micro-cap audience. Recently, we signed on with Uptick's IR services and they have been nothing but accommodating to our needs.

-Dennis Calvert, BioLargo, Inc.

As the CEO of COPsync, I was pleased with the questions I was posed during the interview. This provided me a platform and venue to share our Company story.

-Ron Woessner, CEO COPsync, Inc.

The day after our first interview, we had solid action in our stock and this trend has continued subsequent to each interview. The interview process was quite easy and with the advance preparation, we were able to get great content with minimal effort.
